

ELIJAH BEATON is a cultural historian specializing in late 20th-century urban space, the built environment, and material culture.

elijah@beaton.page

970-413-9368

EDUCATION

Indiana University, 2021 — Present

PhD American History, Minor in Art History

Mississippi State University, 2019 — 2021

MA American History, Material Culture Specialty

Colorado State University, 2016 — 2018

BA History, Interdisciplinary Studies, Business

Front Range Community College, 2014 — 2016

AA History

POSITIONS

Journal of American History, 2021 — Present

Editorial Assistant, Social Media Manager

Paul Lucas Graduate Conference, 2022

Graphic Design, Brand Strategy, Social Media Coordinator

Mississippi State University, 2021

Teaching Assistant with Discussion Section

World History from 1500 with Christy Davenport

Mississippi State University, 2019, 2020

Teaching Assistant with Discussion Section

Modern U.S. History with Jim Giesen

Mississippi State University, 2020
Teaching Assistant with Discussion Section
Modern U.S. History with Gene Zubovich

Phi Alpha Theta, 2020—2021
Secretary

Colorado State University Athletic Department, 2016—2017
History Tutor

HONORS

Journal of American History Editorialship, 2021—2023

Mississippi State Maroon Assistantship, 2019—2021

Colorado State Dean's List, 2017—2018

Colorado State Green & Gold Scholarship, 2016—2018